

UEG Week Virtual may have technically ended, but your immersive scientific experience is far from over!

Thanks to our more than 215 live streamed sessions and over 770 recordings, your educational adventure of uncovering the latest and greatest information in the field of digestive health is just getting started!

We are happy to say that all our impeccable UEG Week Virtual recordings are accessible to everyone, even if you did not register as a UEG Week delegate!

If you are reading this and you were not a UEG Week Virtual delegate, we invite you to explore our wide array of UEG Week on-demand recording packages. They allow for immediate video access and are available for purchase at attractive rates.

Currently reading this as someone with UEG Week Virtual delegate status? Then no further purchases are needed from your side! Enjoy unlimited access to all recordings in our Missed a Session feature within the virtual congress platform.

VIRTUAL 2021

This isn't goodbye, it's "see you soon"!

Feeling sad that UEG Week Virtual is over? There's no need! We are already looking forward to seeing you soon at our Postgraduate Teaching Virtual – it's just around the corner from October 22-23, 2021!

Remember, our PGT Virtual programme is for all ages and career stages! It offers two days of excellent Continuing Medical Education, as well as 11 CME credits and is held on our innovative virtual congress platform (the same as UEG Week Virtual).

With all of that in mind, we encourage you to have a look at the impressive PGT Virtual scientific programme and register right now so that this doesn't have to be goodbye but rather a "see you soon"!
