Register for our Research Webinar!

The first UEG Research webinar addresses experienced applicants as well as newcomers to Horizon Europe applications, providing the tools you need to succeed.

The calls for collaborative grants on health will soon officially open, therefore it's time to learn more about them! Join us on Thursday, May 6, 18:30 – 19:30 CEST.

Under the moderation of Luigi Ricciardiello, UEG Research Committee Chair, the webinar will provide you with:

- A clear and concise overview of digestive health-related Horizon Europe opportunities and open calls.
- Exciting explanations on the range of topics covered by the open collaborative calls.
- Insightful tips from the experience and first-hand perspective of an evaluator.

Expert speaker, Alessia Di Sandro has been a key partner for the participation and access to Horizon Europe for life-science and bioeconomy at the University of Bologna. She will present the opportunities within UEG Research regarding collaborative grants and explain how to respond to a research call.

Expert speaker, Imam Waked has been an evaluator for no less than four rounds of Horizon 2020 collaborative grants. He will offer insights to the participants on what evaluators look for and what makes an application score highest.
