

Together we celebrate

30
years

of United European Gastroenterology

A reason to celebrate! 30 years of #UEGWeek.

Thanks to you, our myUEG Community, we're approaching 30 years of keeping up with the latest and greatest scientific advancements! This October marks the major milestone of 30 years of UEG and UEG Week.

Think this momentous occasion is a cause for celebration? We couldn't agree more! Here's a taste of what's in store.

Expect the best science

This year, we are bringing you a plethora of spectacular sessions, in both face-to-face (Vienna) and virtual format, courtesy of our first-ever hybrid UEG Week! Enjoy the best of both worlds where we will deliver one event but allow two experiences.

This year's programme features scientific highlights in extremely interactive ways. In every session, delegates have the opportunity to interact in real-time via our Q&A tool both in-person and virtually.

Helpful tip: Your path to success is just a click away when you use our easily accessible Session Pathways feature! This tool is the perfect solution for choosing the sessions that best suit your interests and is conveniently located on the left-hand side of our online programme.

Your UEG Week Anniversary Session

Don't miss out on our UEG Week, 30 years of UEG - Anniversary Session, October 10, at 14:00 CEST! It will be jam-packed with some of the biggest names in digestive health such as Hana Algül, giving a talk on "Pancreatic cancer: Will it ever be solved?" as well as Michael Farthing (Lifetime Achievement Awardee 2021), Alessandro Repici, Christoph Sarrazin, Severine Vermeire, and be moderated by Christoph Beglinger and UEG President, Helena Cortez-Pinto.

That's not all – we'll also have special surprises available exclusively for our in-person delegates, such as our lottery, offering the chance for 1 lucky individual to win a free trip to Vienna for a Meet & Greet with the celebrities of the GI world! The winner will visit our House of European Gastroenterology to attend the committee meeting of their choosing and join its social programme.

Your dynamic, two-day PGT Programme

October 8 – 9, our beloved Postgraduate Teaching (PGT) programme is back in-person! This educational experience focuses on the relevance for the clinical day-to-day business and provides profound updates on the latest developments in GI and hepatology topics.

Join lively experiences containing interactive audience voting, tricky clinical cases, controversial debates, real-time faculty engagement, and exciting cases. The three-year curriculum has returned and will follow the curriculum for year two in 2022. Just like our UEG Week programme, there is no need to worry if you're unable to make it to Vienna. Our wonderful PGT programme and its many opportunities to learn and engage are also fully available in virtual format. Convinced? Register now.

This year's PGT programme features several "30 Years of UEG" sessions, diving into what has changed over the years in terms of treatment within these hot topics. Join these state-of-the-art sessions live to strengthen your understanding of how we've progressed and where we now stand.

PGT "30 Years of UEG" session topics:

- Focus on Chronic Diarrhoea: Has our approach to diagnosis and management changed with "globalisation"?
- Focus on Malabsorption: What has changed in the diagnosis and management?
- Focus on Non-cardiac Chest Pain (NCCP): What has changed in the diagnosis and management?
- Focus on IBS: Did we make any progress in the diagnosis and management?

Join us in Vienna for our Industry Exhibition Opening

Our industry exhibition will feature the world's top pharmaceutical and medical device companies, allowing you to get updates on therapies, innovations as well as new diagnostic and product insights in 2022. If you can't make it to Vienna, we have you covered and offer a dynamic, comprehensive, and easily accessible virtual platform again in 2022. We're also thrilled to provide our UEG Week industry symposia, showcasing the latest and greatest updates on new data, research and therapies.

As we return to face-to-face interaction with an in-person exhibition, we welcome all participants to join us at our Exhibition Opening! Make sure to arrive punctually to catch a special speech from UEG President, Helena Cortez-Pinto and to enjoy free vitamin drinks and cookies! We look forward to seeing you there Sunday, October 9, 11:00 CEST!
