Your UEG Week Vienna homecoming. (We've missed you!)

For the full immersive experience, we encourage you to attend in-person in Vienna for our first face-to-face congress in two years from October 8 – 11, 2022! We encourage you to also take advantage of our special UEG Week Lufthansa Group airlines fares for reduced rates!

To those within our myUEG Community who are unable to physically attend, there is no need to sweat! We are thrilled to also offer our top-tier scientific programme as well as innovative ways to exchange virtually via our digital platform. Our voting and Q&A tools are fully accessible to in-person and virtual delegates alike via our online platform!

It's our 30th UEG Week & we're going big for our Anniversary Session!

Don't miss out on our 30 years of UEG - Anniversary Session, October 10, 14:00 - 15:00 CEST! It will be jam-packed with some of the biggest names in digestive health such as Hana Algül, giving a talk on "Pancreatic cancer: Will it ever be solved?" as well Severine Vermeire, Christoph Sarrazin (Germany), Alessandro Repici (Italy), Lifetime Achievement Awardee 2021, Michael Farthing and be moderated by UEG President, Helena Cortez-Pinto.

Why is our PGT the place to be? Hear from our chair.

Here are Postgraduate Teaching (PGT) Task Force Chair, Iris Dotan's top 5 reasons for attending our PGT October 8 – 9, 2022:

1. It's the most efficient (and enjoyable) way to be up to date in guidelines and practical
2. UEG's PGT: Where evidence and advice are delivered by leading faculty
3. Educating, stimulating and fun

That's not all – we'll also have some special surprises available exclusively for our in-person delegates, such as our lottery, offering the chance for 1 lucky individual to win a great prize!
